Class 43 of the Nice Classification system primarily encompasses services related to the provision of food and drink, with a particular emphasis on fast food services. This includes establishments such as fast food restaurants, takeaway food services, snack bars, and food delivery services. These services focus on offering quick and convenient meal options for customers, ranging from burgers and pizzas to sandwiches and salads. In addition, Class 43 also covers ancillary services like cafes and coffee shops that may provide fast food items as part of their offerings. Essentially, this class addresses the needs of consumers seeking prompt and efficient dining solutions.
